

Focus on Fabulous

MICHELLE BRYANT GRIFFIN
speaker, author, artist, entrepreneur

Focus on Fabulous began its debut in 2007 when photographer Michelle Bryant started her photography business. Carrying the vision of revealing unseen gems, Michelle launched her publication Focus on Fabulous Magazine in 2015 and her podcast in 2019. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she took this concept even further, bringing this support to small businesses with the formation of Fabulous Business Solutions and has Fabulous Connections, a meeting spot in Goose Creek, SC for small events, weddings, classes, etc.

All-encompassed, Focus on Fabulous is an all-female- creative company that provides platforms that connects businesses with clients, gives motivation to the hopeful, and encouragement to the everyday individual by blending story, heart, passion, and purpose together and challenges others to step out of their comfort zones and awaken to the possibilities of what lies within, thus shining their light to the world.

Focus on Fabulous reveals the silver lining in each situation and circumstance, providing a positive outlook and helps women get from where they are to where they want to be by bringing their visions to life.

Michelle, a photographer by instinct, is a national multi-award-winning photographer whose photos have been published in numerous medias and promotional campaigns across the globe.

In addition to being an artist, sought-after speaker, author, entrepreneur, and photographer, Michelle delights in sharing her stories, passion, and personal light through her speaking engagements, within her eight books, and through her quarterly publication.

Michelle has over 30 years of graphic design and marketing experience, holds numerous design and art awards, and has been recognized and sought after across the country for her endless talents.

Growing up the oldest of eight children has equipped her with extraordinary leadership and organizational skills. Having attended 27 schools in 12 years and her 20 years as a military wife has provided her with immense versatility and adaptability.

Michelle is well known for her corny sense of humor and her heart for others. She prides herself in assisting individuals and businesses to achieve their goals and makes it her purpose to share her story and the stories of others.

Her book, God, are You Listening? has received the coveted Literary Titan book award, including a 5-star rating and review on Amazon.

Michelle has been seen on the CW and appeared on several syndicated radio shows. She holds numerous awards and accolades, including The American Businesswomen's Association Protégé Award in 2018, their Woman of the Year Award in 2020, ACHI magazine's Columnist of the Year Award in 2019, and the coveted Positive Social Influencer Award in 2022. She has also been credited by Charleston's Mayor John Tecklenburg with a signed proclamation for recognition and celebration of Focus on Fabulous Day on September 8th.
